

HARBOR 25 FUN

Summer 2009

Harbor 25 #24 was delivered to Dan Robertson in early May, just in time for a fantastic summer of sailing out of Anacortes, Washington. Soon after the launching, Dan invited Schock dealer Steve Orsini to take his family for a sail. The conditions were blue sky with an 8 – 10 knot wind, which moderated to 5 knots as evening came on. They sailed in Fidalgo Bay, the large body of water just to the east of Anacortes and Cap Sante Marina. They went out into the east end of Guemes, just off the rock outcropping known as Cap Sante. The family had an absolutely delightful day – “The boat was a joy to sail.”

Steve Orsini is at the helm with his daughter Alexis and 3 month old grandson, Eamon, sitting in the cockpit. Up on the deck is Steve's wife Ginger with 4 year old Dakoda.
